

Hacienda Pinilla participated on the first Americas Real Estate Expo that took place in Costa Rica. I think the event was very well organized, the staff was very professional . We were able to develop many relationships with agents from Costa Rica, USA, Panama, etc. We are very happy with the event and the support because it is exactly what we needed, not a expo open to the public every day, but an event that approached professionals and investors of real estate, so our time was very efficiently used.

Thank you,
